Heley and Phill walk from Glasgow to Inverness and beyond!

Notes: Day 7 - We rested in Fort William, we could probably add a couple of miles here, but we didn't bother to log our lounging about.

Day 9 - Timing data lost. Day 9 was just a nightmare anyway, and I'd estimate at least 12 hours out and about that day.

Day 13 - We travelled by bus to Inverness, then by train to Aberdeen. We didn't log any of our walking on this day.

Day 14 - We wandered to what would have been our finish line had we been completely successful.

No rucksacks this time, most of the resting time is probably where Heley was playing DDR.
